Echelon Christmas

Christmas at Echelon brought an air of festive cheer and warmth, as our residents immersed themselves in the holiday spirit with an array of delightful activities. The halls were alive with laughter and joy, as everyone donned fun, colorful hats, bringing a playful and merry vibe to our celebration. The day was made even more special with the exchange of heartfelt Christmas cards, each one a token of affection and friendship within our close-knit community. The sight of residents, staff, and visitors sharing these moments of happiness truly embodied the essence of the holiday season.

This simple yet thoughtful gathering not only satisfied their taste buds but also filled their hearts with the joy and warmth that define the Christmas season. It was these moments, surrounded by friends and care, that made the holiday truly memorable for everyone at Echelon.

PCA Triple Advisory Meeting

On December 7th, we had the privilege of attending the PCA Triple Advisory meeting, an event that showcased the vibrant dynamism and collaborative spirit of our community. It was a day marked by meaningful interactions and networking with various Asian Advisory Committees.

Each discussion and shared idea was a testament to the strength and unity within our community, something that continually inspires us at Echelon.

The meeting was an incredible opportunity to connect with fellow members, exchange insights, and discuss new strategies for community engagement and development. Witnessing the diverse representation and the collective commitment to bettering our community was truly heartening. It reinforced the importance of coming together, sharing experiences, and learning from one another.

This gathering wasn't just about making connections; it was about building lasting relationships that will help us grow and evolve as a community. The PCA Triple Advisory meeting was a reminder of the power of collaboration and the amazing things we can achieve when we work together. We returned from the meeting energized and more committed than ever to contribute positively to the community we so deeply care about.

Holiday Party

Last night's PASSi Holiday Party for Home Health Aides was a resounding success, and it was a pleasure to join alongside CEO Ken Yang and board member Pearl Lee. This event was a beautiful culmination of hard work and dedication, especially significant as it marked my over 8-year journey on the PASSi Board. The evening was filled with warmth and the spirit of the season, making it a memorable gathering for everyone involved.

Attending this event, I was reminded of the invaluable contributions of our Chinese and Vietnamese aides, who play a crucial role in the care and support of our community. Their unwavering dedication is the backbone of the service we provide, and connecting with them personally was both an honor and a privilege.

Each conversation held stories of compassion and resilience, highlighting the impact of our aides in the lives of those they care for. This event not only celebrated the festive season but also reinforced the strong bonds within our community. As we look forward to another year of service and commitment, nights like these remind us of the passion and purpose that drive our work at PASSi.

The evening was brimming with delightful Tuscan flavors, each dish a masterpiece of culinary art that tantalized our taste buds. The air was filled with the enchanting sounds of captivating music, setting the tone for a truly magical experience.

As we mingled and laughed, the vibrant atmosphere enveloped us, making every moment feel like a leisurely stroll through picturesque Italian streets. The décor, inspired by the rustic charm of Tuscany, added an authentic touch that enhanced the entire experience. Our senses were delighted by the aroma of Italian cuisine and the melodious tunes that resonated in the background.
